

NZBHydra2

- Use it as an source for tools like Sonarr, Radarr, Lidarr or CouchPotato
- Multi-user support

For more information about this app, you can visit their GitHub repo.

This section will show you how to set up NZBHydra2 for the first time. You'll be doing the following steps

- Your username for NZBHydra2 will be your service username and the password you set during the install procedure.
- Add Usenet Indexers

Getting NZBHydra2 API

- To get your NZBHydra2 API, go to Config. Besides the Save button, there's an API? button. Click that to show the API details. You may add that to apps such as Sonarr, Radarr, and CouchPotato.

Connecting Usenet Downloaders (Optional)

- If you wish to add your Usenet downloaders to download directly from NZBHydra2, go to Downloading, scroll down, and click Add new Downloader.
- Select between NZBGet and SABnzbd and enter the following information

NZBGet

```
Name: NZBGet
URL: https://{username}.{servername}.usbx.me/nzbget/
Username: {nzbget username}
Password: {nzbget password}
```

SABnzbd

```
Name: SABnzbd
URL: https://{username}.{servername}.usbx.me/sabnzbd/
API Key: {sabnzbd api key}
```